Ski & Snowboard Lessons

- Ski and snowboard lessons included in the package are provided by the best accredited national ski schools. English-speaking lessons are provided in all countries.
- Group lessons of no more than 12 people are available from beginner to expert level. Ski instructors will create groups by level based on their assessment in the first descents.
- You can request to form your own group if you are 12 people, no matter which level you are. (Europe only).
- Lessons usually last from 9am until 12pm, followed by a lunch break, and then from 2 to 4pm. Arrangements are made directly with the instructor by each group and times can vary.
- Some resorts offer private lessons for toddlers from 3 y/o for a fee and are subject to availability.

- Ski minimum age is 4 y/o and snowboard minimum age is 8 y/o. Ski lessons for kids are linked to the Mini Club. If there is no Mini Club in the resort, it means that ski lessons are not provided for children under 12 y/o. In that case, ski lessons can usually be purchased by our guests on-site directly with local providers at an extra cost (Europe only).
- Please note that wearing a helmet on the slopes is mandatory in most resorts for children taking group lessons organised by Club Med and all guests skiing in the off-piste ski groups (level 3) and advanced ski groups (level 4). Additionally helmets are mandatory in all resorts in Asia.

Ski Rentals

- Ski equipment rental* includes: ski/snowboards, poles, boots and helmets. Available in all our resorts worldwide and can be pre-booked in advance in most resorts.
- Ski clothing rental* includes: jackets, pants and is available in all our ski resorts in Asia only.
